Other important information
This notice replaces all previous notices of our consumer privacy notice, and may be amended at any time.
If you close your account and transfer your investments to another firm, in the process of transferring we may share your information with the new firm. When you or your representative associates with a new firm, the use of your information becomes subject to the new firm's privacy notice. If you do not want us to share your information (other than as permitted by law) with the representative or the new firm, you may contact us by calling: (727) 299-1476. If your primary address is in a state that requires your affirmative consent to share your information with a new firm, then we will require you give such consent.
If any of your accounts with us have a Vermont mailing address, we will automatically treat those accounts as if you elected not to share information about your creditworthiness and not to receive marketing from our affiliates; we will also not obtain consumer credit reports about you without your consent. If any of your accounts with us have a California, North Dakota, or Vermont mailing address, we will automatically not include those accounts in any joint marketing activities with nonaffiliated financial companies.
